

---

Hanami

---

13/131 Hyde Street
Footscray Victoria
3011 Australia
+61 3 9689 9929

www.yellowdiva.com

Yellow Diva

Hanami

Designed by David Walley
Manufacturer Yellow Diva

In Japanese culture, Hanami, literally translated as 'flower-viewing', is the thousand year old custom of celebrating the arrival of spring by feasting under blossoming cherry trees.

The form of the Hanami vase takes its cues from natural plant growth, with lateral branches of hand formed tubular brass radiating from a cylindrical core of polished stone, creating a strong sculptural silhouette.

Hanami Vase
D240 W240 H450

Materials & Finishes

White Carrara marble with polished brass stems or Black Gabbro with black brass stems

Lead time

8 weeks

Warranty

2 years

Production

Hanami vases are manufactured in limited edition small batches in Melbourne, Australia.

Instructions for use

To fill the vase, simply submerge the tube sets in water to fill them prior to assembly. Arrange a single bloom or stem in each tube.

